PRIMARY SOURCES – HIGHLIGHTS

Key Historical Documents Supporting the Charles Nessler Research Project

The Charles Nessler Research Project is based on original archival research conducted in Switzerland, Germany, France, the United Kingdom and the United States.

The following documents represent a selection of the primary historical sources supporting the research.

Date	Primary Source	Significance
1872	Birth Register	Birth of Karl Ludwig Nessler
1896	Zurich Residence Register	Residence in Zurich
1906	Hairdressers' Weekly Journal	First public demonstration
1909	British Patent	Permanent wave patent
1938	Personal Letter	Nessler's own account of his early years

---

Primary Source Categories

- Civil registration records
- Residence registers
- Church records
- Patents
- Contemporary newspapers and trade journals
- Company records
- Personal correspondence
- Historical photographs

Research Note

The Charles Nessler Research Project is based on several hundred original historical documents from archives, libraries and museums in Switzerland, Germany, France, the United Kingdom and the United States.

Additional documentation is available upon request.

Charles Nessler Research Project
Armin Wolfarth
Winterthur, Switzerland